UM TO KICK OFF INTERNATIONAL QUARTER MARCH 28

MISSOULA --

The University of Montana will open its International Quarter this spring with a traditional Mexican dance by an international student and remarks by UM President James Koch.

International Quarter Kick Off will begin at noon March 28 in UM's University Center Mall. The kick off will begin with a brief introduction by International Programs Director Peter Koehn. Ivonne Galvan, a UM student from Mexico, will perform a traditional Oaxacan dance "Giving Thanks for the Pineapple Harvest."

Koch's talk will follow the dance and then Koehn will highlight coming events and programs during the International Quarter.

###

Note to broadcasters: Koehn's name is pronounced "Kern," and Oaxacan is pronounced "Wa-HAW-kan."
